History/Achievements

The manufacturer suffered a devastating fire in the warehouse, which destroyed machinery, worktables and stock. After a couple of days new premises were found, so the process started to rebuild the production line. One of the buyers from the manufacturer contacted BenchMaster to request competitive pricing on stainless steel workbenches / tables and ensure delivery could be quick, so production could re-commence as soon as possible. BenchMaster quoted within a couple of hours and after checking measurements and what the operators required on each workbench the manufacturer placed the order. BenchMaster revised the production schedule to ensure this order was completed in a timely manner to meet the very tight deadline. BenchMaster achieved the tight delivery schedule thereby allowing the customer to re-commence production.

9 x SS1260S - 450mm long x 450mm deep x 760mm stainless steel workbench with stainless steel bottom shelf and alloy levelling feet.

The results

BenchMaster making a prompt offer and agreeing to the tight deadline played a significant part in winning this contract. The manufacturer required the workbenches to ensure the production line could commence after a fire. More quotes have been requested since due to the quality of the stainless workbenches and the facility to deliver in a timely manner.

Quote / Comments

We at Gordon Rhodes & Son were really impressed at the speed of manufacture of the tables we ordered. BenchMaster were professional and sympathetic when dealing with us. Thanks to them we got our production up and running more efficiently within a few weeks after the devastating fire we suffered."
